—Temple of Honor might.

—An excellent harvest day.

—Burglars are abroad in the land.

—Blaine and Logan club at the central chamber this evening.

—The business portion of Main street was cleared up to-day by the business firms.

—City Marshal Hogan is confined to his home to-day by a severe attack of diarrhea.

—Galeley & King have a large quantity of splendid wood for sale at very reasonable prices. Their special bargains are worth the notice of those in need of wood.

—There was a dance up in the second ward on Saturday evening, which was kept going until a late (or early) hour on Sunday morning, greatly annoying many of the neighbors.

—There were three congressmen on the opera house stage Saturday evening, all democrats.—Hon. James H. Budd, of California; Hon. Burr V. Jones, of the third Wisconsin district; and Hon. John W. Wiggins, of the first district. Mr. Budd did not speak.

—James Staff, the pick-pocket, who was arrested last Friday evening, waived his examination to-day in the municipal court. His trial was set for next Saturday and bail fixed at seven hundred and fifty dollars in default of which he was committed.

—A concrete walk is to be put down on the river street front of the Bennett block, from Milwaukee street, connecting with that in front of the Norcross block. The walk will be of the same uniform width, and will be a great convenience to the public passing that way.

—City Clerk Church has just completed the special assessment roll for the grading of Lynn street, Fourth and Fifth wards. The total number of foot frontage is 5,769 12-70. The total expense of the grade cuts up $356.18, making $94.100 cents per foot.

—The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary J. Wright, who died in Fond du Lac on Friday, and whose remains were brought to this city on Saturday afternoon, took place this afternoon at two o'clock, at the First M. E. church, by Rev. O. E. Goldthorpe conducting the services. The remains were buried in Oak Hill cemetery.

—There is considerable talk among young republicans of organizing a company of "Plumed Knights" for the political campaign. There are plenty of young men of pronounced republican principles here to organize a good battalion, and there is no good reason why they should not carry out the plan.

—Mr. G. W. Lamonte, of Clinton Junction, died this morning at Hastings, Nebraska, whither he went a few days ago. His funeral will take place at Clinton on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Lamonte formerly lived in Janesville a number of years, where he became well known. His sudden death will be deeply deplored by a wide circle of friends.

—Again, the Angel of Death has knocked at the convent door of the Sisters of Mercy, this city, and summoned one of its inmates to the better land. The visit was not unexpected, however, as the victim, Sister M. Antonia Kohn, had for a long time been an inmate sufferer from consumption, and at 4:30 o'clock yesterday morning, she peacefully passed from among the living. The funeral services will be held in St. Patrick's church to-morrow morning, at nine o'clock.

—One of the handsomest omnibuses ever seen in this city was completed to-day at the carriage factory of Mr. Herman Buchholz, on Bluff and East Milwaukee street. The bus was manufactured especially for Mr. O. W. Jackman, who will use it in connection with his popular livery establishment. Mr. Buchholz says it is the best bus he ever turned out of his shop, which is giving it a good "send off," as he has manufactured a good many excellent ones. The ornamental painting and upholstery are all of the very best and in good taste. Mr. Buchholz is just completing a duplicate of this vehicle which will be shipped to Andrew Kontzler, of Madison, this week.

—He was a small kid, not even fourteen years old, of a good republican father and mother, and as he crawled into the house late on Saturday night, he was confronted by his enraged mother with, "Charley, Tommy says you were carrying a torch in the Hendricks and Cleveland torch light procession to-night. I thought you were a good Blaine and Logan boy." "So I am, mother; but the democrats wanted to make a good show, and they offered us little kids two shillings apiece to carry a torch, and we caught on, but we did not turn out when the democrats cheered, you bet." Charley's explanation was satisfactory, and he was allowed to go to bed, with the kind blessing of his mother and the strong admonition not to be caught doing so again.

—An enthusiastic admirer of the ex-shepherd of Erie county, let his enthusiasm get away with him on Saturday evening during the passage of the torch light procession down West Milwaukee street. When the center of the line had reached Franklin street, a charge of red fire was exhibited, and our enthusiast stepped from the sidewalk into the street, swinging his hat and crying at the top of his voice, "Three cheers for ———." He stopped for a moment to collect his thoughts; then again "Three cheers for ———." He was puzzled again but finally he rallied and yelled out "Everybody! three cheers for Hendricks and Cleveland for all of us minute!"—Cleveland! The cheers were given but were very faint, as "everybody" did not join in the chorus.

—The person claiming to have donated ten dollars towards defraying the expenses of the Fourth of July celebration, and that credit was not given him in the published report of the committee, is requested to call on the treasurer, Mr. O. Minor, and inform him who received the donation, that his name and credit may be given. It is the general opinion that he did not donate a penny, but has been talking, that he might cast reflections on some of the committee. The committee insisted upon the publication of the subscriptions that the public might see who were the contributors, and if any names were omitted it was not their fault. The whole amount of funds received is stated by the treasurer. Now, if any have not been mentioned let them call on Mr. Minor and explain, that proper credit may be given, and not be a coward, and cast reflections upon the honest and trustworthy committee.

A Youngster's Teeth

demanded greater attention than they usually receive. Mothers careful of their children's physical well-being, wisely adopt the DENTOL as an article of the family toilet. If the first set of a juvenile's teeth are daily polished with this matchless purifier, the second set are almost invariably white and strong, and prove a life-long blessing, otherwise they frequently turn out curious and irregular. Young and old alike benefit by its use.

THE DEMOCRACY.

The Torch Light Procession and National Meeting on Saturday Evening.

The "grand torch light procession" of the Janesville branch of the democratic party, on Saturday evening, was very creditable to that organization. There were two hundred and sixty-five torches in the line, as counted by a representative of the Gazette as they marched past Franklin street. At intervals along the march red fire was employed to illuminate the line, which added much to its appearance. The procession was orderly, but very little enthusiasm was manifested in the street. The line was formed on South Academy street, and marched down West Milwaukee street to Main, south on Main to Court, east on Court to Bluff, north on Bluff to Milwaukee street, in front of the opera house, where the lights were extinguished and the procession disbanded. The crowd then filed into the opera house for the purpose of hearing the ratification speeches. The hall was well filled, there being a large number of ladies present. The Catholic cornet band, which led the torchlight procession, took seats on the stage and played several patriotic airs, such as "Marching thro' Georgia," "Rally Round the Flag," and "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp, the Boys are Marching." At the conclusion of the first piece of music on the stage, Mr. Alex. Richardson, president of the Cleveland and Hendricks club, stepped forward, and in a few remarks concerning the objects of the meeting, introduced Hon. John Wiggins. Mr. Wiggins was greeted by a good round of applause. He did not make a set speech, but what he did say gave evidence that he was laboring under the delusion, so often marring his mind, that the democracy were going to sweep the country in November. He again repeated the old prophecy that Wisconsin would surely cast her electoral vote for Cleveland and Hendricks, and that he was assured by prominent republicans and democrats in New York that Cleveland would carry New York by 50,000 majority. He could see no salvation for the republicans. He thanked the audience for their kind reception, and promised to appear before them again later in the evening.

Hon. Burr V. Jones, of Madison, was then introduced. Mr. Jones spoke at considerable length. In the main his remarks were very fair for a democratic speaker. The only exceptions being that he did not appear to comprehend the difference between theft and embezzlement by a department clerk, and fraud and corruption. Because a post-office clerk steals $80,000, and is caught, he sets up the cry that the government is a fraud, and that Washington and the republican party and the administration is the hot-bed of corruption. In the same breath he eulogizes our government as the best, most prosperous, happiest in the world, under republican rule for a quarter of a century. He concluded by referring to the Court of St. James, which appeared to meet with higher approbation from a democratic standpoint than that at Washington.

Mr. Wm. Kennedy, of Appleton, followed Mr. Jones. Mr. Kennedy occupied his time in an attempt to prove something outside of politics in this country, something which neither the democratic nor republican mention in their platforms. His speech would have been a good one before a land league. He closed by trying to prove that the insult to Tammany was not an insult to the Irish race, Mr. Kennedy is capable of making a far better argument than that of Saturday evening, in which his Janesville friends were much disappointed.

Dr. J. B. Whiting was called out, but the hour being late the doctor thanked the audience for their flattering call, but said he knew too well the proprieties of the occasion to offer them a plate of beef after they had feasted to repletion on the beef and bread that had been served them by the distinguished gentlemen who had occupied the platform during the evening. On some future occasion, if they so desired, he would take pleasure in addressing them.

Wm. Smith made a brief speech in response to a call. Mr. Smith was brimful of enthusiasm. The democracy had captured the cream of the republican party, and had kicked Tammany overboard, and with a clean deck he predicted that the old ship of state, under democratic management, would sail victorious. The band played "Rally round the flag, and the meeting dispersed.

May Fever.

I have been afflicted for twenty years, during the months of August and September, with May fever, and have tried various remedies without relief. I was induced to try Ely's Cream Balm; have used it with favorable results, and can confidently recommend it to all similarly afflicted. Robert W. Townley, (ex-Mayor) Elizabeth, N. Y.

I have been a Hay Fever sufferer for three years; have often heard Ely's Cream Balm spoken of in the highest terms; did not take much stock in it because of the many fake medicines. A friend persuaded me to try it, and I did so with wonderful success. This recommendation you can use for the benefit of Hay Fever sufferers. T. S. Geer, Syracuse, N. Y. Price 50c per bottle.

Notice.

On and after Tuesday, July 23d, my stage will leave Sharon every morning on the arrival of the Janesville accommodation, for Porter's Park, Geneva Lake, and return to Sharon in the evening in time to connect with the train north. Janesville parties will find this the most convenient route to the lake.

PAUL GIBBENS, Sharon, Wis.

Origin of Ammonia.

Ammonia is obtained in large quantities by the putrefaction of the urine of animals.—Phlegma Britannica.

Nothing equals Allen's Bileus. Physic in quickly relieving colic, headache, heartburn and all other bilious troubles; 25 cents, large bottle—At drug stores.

Small Boxes. Monster 50-Cent Bileus and Great Four-Hing Cures.

Success in any line is looked upon with reverence by mankind if the success attained is great and worthy of the effort expended to attain it. This rule holds good the world over, whether it be in love, war, or business, the palm is awarded to the great.

We are reminded of this by the coming of the great Sells Bros. Circus to Janesville on Wednesday July 23d, where they will give two performances. The Sells Bros. as showmen have been phenomenally successful, from the fact that they conduct their great shows on strictly moral and business principles and exhibit every feature as advertised. The management connected with the show is positively the largest on earth, including in all, 50 huge gages of wild beasts comprising in their vast entirety specimens of all species known to mankind as well as hundreds of kinds never seen before in any zoological collection, traveling or stationary. Whole droves of led animals, herds of strange animals, and dens of wild untamable beasts. Among the animals which are found with the Sells show, and they are to be seen nowhere else, is a monster pair of bipedipomani—a male and female lipopomani—huge, shambling, amphibious brutes, sweating great beads of blood at every pore. A herd of tall, graceful giraffes, the finest specimens ever witnessed, and the only ones now being exhibited anywhere. A monster cock-black scarp elephant is also to be seen in this rare collection, as well as hundreds of other animals, too numerous for detailed mention.

In the great quadruple circus will be found the names of two hundred, all star, first-class artists, whose fame is as broad as the earth's compass. We mention a few of their names, picked at random from the 200 list:

Mr. James Robinson, the champion bareback rider of the world, who thringly bore with the first place. With him, as great riders, we name Madame Cordona, Miss Mildred Gardner, Miss Pollie Lee, Mr. Frank H. Gardner, Mr. Budd George, Senator Joe Bell. Not a pad act in the show—every rider a bare-back champion.

The Strik family, Europe's greatest bicyclists, unicyclists, is also with the biggest of big shows. The great Leslies, the Donaldson brothers, the Burton athletes, the Martinettes, the Purvis sisters, Mr. John White and his wonderful college or educated canines, Mr. John Purvis and his school of educated donkeys—all as big fools as John himself—and a thousand other rare acts, as we said above, to be seen nowhere else.

The medical profession adds the weight of its testimony to that of thousands of persons in every walk and station of life who have learned the value of the now specific for rheumatism and neuralgia, Arthur M. Lee, M. D., of Pomona, Ill., writes: "I have subjected Athlophors to a careful test in the treatment of neuralgia and rheumatism, and can confidently testify to its uniform efficiency as a remedy in the treatment of these diseases under my personal observation in practice during the past six months."

By the court, ANOS P. RICHARD, County Judge.

The School Commissioners.

An adjourned meeting of the board of education was held on Saturday night. President Richardson occupied the chair and all the commissioners were present. The journal of the previous meeting read and approved.

The clerk presented a written statement from City Engineer Edward Rucker, relative to the grading of the first ward school grounds. The report was referred to the committee on repairs to adopt in whole or in part thereof as they should see fit for guidance in making the improvements.

Superintendent R. W. Burton submitted his recommendations for teachers. He made no report as to the high school department, but otherwise recommended the former corps of ward school teachers for the same positions with one exception, which was a case of transfer from the second intermediate of the second ward, to the second primary of the fifth ward, and vice versa. The report drew out some discussion, but was finally referred to the committee of the whole to consider at the next meeting.

The clerk was instructed to present a statement of the amount of coal wanted for the ensuing year to each of the city coal dealers requesting them to offer bids to furnish the coal, the board reserving the right to reject all bids if so disposed.

A written report from the city treasurer was read, setting forth the exact amount of monies credited to the school fund for the year ending May 1st, 1884. The statement did not contain the amount of dog tax paid in, neither the amount of fines paid in the municipal court, but these sums are now in the hands of the treasurer. The report was referred to the finance committee, and the clerk instructed to request written monthly statements from the treasurer.

Applications for teacher positions were presented as follows: Miss Lizzie McCotter, of Vermontville, Mich.; Miss McCarter, of Lansing, Mich.; Miss Wickham, of Beloit, and Mr. E. A. Guernsey, of Plainville, Wis., which were referred to the superintendent of examination.

The board adjourned until Thursday evening July 24th, at seven o'clock, sharp.
